BARON VON NOLKEN

CITY OF WARSAW SPANNING THE RIVER VISTULA

AUTO RUNS AWAY

Onalaskan Twists in Vain at Wheel, But Sticks to his Post

With his auto cutting fantastic circles at full speed Plato Nichols hung onto the steering gear in sheer desperation and risked his life in the effort to get the machine under control, rather than jump to the pavement and see his pet carrier dashed up against a fence or building and seriously injured.

He was on his way from the north to south sides and had arrived at Fourth and Pine streets, when suddenly the springs under the box broke and the top came down onto the axles with a dull thud. The steering gear was thereby disconnected and with a full head of gasoline on the machine started to careen from side to side, and swerved from curb to curb at great speed. The gasoline was shut off at once and Mr. Nichol twisted the steering wheel with all his might in an effort to keep the machine in the road. He might easily have jumped and escaped with perhaps a few slight bruises, but manfully stuck to his post. Finally the machine started a mad circular course in the middle of the street and when the power ran out came to a stop. With great beads of sweat running down his face young Mr. Nichols stepped down out of his car grimly smiling over his victory, and left the auto to the mercies of the repairman who later came after it.

BIG CIRCUS ARRIVES WHILE CITY SLEEPS

Absence of Street Parade New Feature--Free Show at Grounds Attracts Large Crowds

..... Every train into the city brought immense crowds, the aisles and platforms being swarmed with circus crowds. Trainmen say the roads were unable to accommodate the throngs that waited at the depots of surrounding towns. It is estimated 5,000 strangers are in the city. The attendance this afternoon is estimated at 10,000. The slight rain this morning did not interfere with the holiday.

Within three hours this morning, while most of the people of La Crosse were sleeping or preparing for their day's toil, a great white city sprung up on Eighteenth and State streets, a city with 1,000 inhabitants and most every convenience known to modern civilization. It will stay there until 11 o'clock tonight, but the city is laid out as carefully as though it were to remain for weeks. It is the temporary home of the Barnum & Bailey circus, "the greatest show on earth." It occupies four square blocks, just west of the fair grounds.

The first section arrived from Madison, where yesterday's performances were given, just as day was breaking this morning, and pulled onto a side track in the Northwestern yards. The usual crowd of small boys, most of whom had been up for several hours, was on hand, and they were augmented by several hundred older people and more boys, within an hour. Other sections, in all containing 86 cars, came in before seven o'clock. Hardly had the first section come to a stop when spectators saw the commencement of the preparations for the big performances given this afternoon and evening, perhaps the most marvelous exemplification of the value of "system" apparent in any traveling organization. Within a minute inclines were in place at the ends of flatcars and wagons were being slowly moved down to the ground.

From the stock cars came horses, which were hitched to the wagons as fast as they were ready. Men worked rapidly and noisily. But everywhere was system. Each man knew his place, and the bosses knew that each man was in his place.

A few minutes later the first wagon pulled into the circus grounds. It carried measuring devices and stakes. More followed with similar burdens. As fast as they came they were un-with the clang of the automatic stake driver, and the click, click, click of the heavy mallets wielded by sturdy negroes. Before the first piece of canvas arrived, the sectional center pole of the stock tent had been put in place and it took but a few minutes to get the shelter for the 800 horses arranged. Next came the culinary department with its thirty-foot range, its

HAY IS AT REST

Silent Company of Distinguished Mourners Present

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
CLEVELAND, July 5.—With fitting ceremonies, yet marked by simplicity the body of the late Secretary of State John Hay was today laid in its last resting place at Lakeview cemetery.

At 11 o'clock the last services for the dead began in the sanctuary of the Wade memorial chapel at Lakeview cemetery. In the chapel was assembled a little company of distinguished mourners, Mrs. Hay and Clarence Hay were on the front bench to the right, to the left was President Roosevelt and Samuel Mather. Other relatives were near Mrs. Hay. Vice President Fairbanks and the remainder of the company sat well to the rear of the chapel, when the silent company assembled.

Dr. Hiram C. Haydin began a prayer for the dead and a quartette sang two verses of a hymn, following which Dr. A. B. Meldrum, pastor of the church, read a passage of scriptures. Another hymn, a prayer and the service was ended.

A squad of troop A, Ohio National Guards, bore the casket down the aisle. Behind it followed the chief mourners and members of the cabinet, who acted as honorary pallbearers.

The president accompanied Mrs. Hay to the carriage and the cortege then moved to the stone plot, where the casket was lowered into the grave. Dr. Haydin reading a familiar grave-side prayer.

The party at once entered their carriages and were driven away. The president and cabinet, with visiting associates of the late secretary, were driven to the train. Mrs. Hay returned to the home of Samuel Mather.

The funeral began with the arrival of President Roosevelt and party at the chamber of commerce hall, where the remains lay in state. Troop A, with a squad of police led the cortege. A large number of people lined the streets leading to the cemetery and watched the passing of the funeral procession.

President's Party Arrives.
CLEVELAND, July 5.—The special train on the Pennsylvania bearing the president and his party to attend the Hay funeral arrived at the union station at 9 o'clock. He was accompanied by all members of the cabinet and former Secretaries Morton, Gage, Root and Smith, Senator Knox and Secretary Loeb. Troop A was drawn up at the entrance of the station. The party was met by Samuel Mather and a committee of the chamber of commerce. A large crowd witnessed the president's arrival, but made no demonstration. The party entered carriages and was driven to the chamber of commerce where they were met by Governor Herrick.

At the hospital this afternoon it is stated that the man is not badly injured and that he will be able to leave the institution within a few days. The skull is not fractured, the worst injury being the shock and a bad scalp wound.

JUMPS FROM TRAIN

Peter Schafer, Hurlled From Fast Mail and Seriously Injured

Either falling or by being pushed from the overcrowded fast mail on the Milwaukee road, Peter Schafer, this morning, was seriously injured in the north side yards at the Caledonia street crossing. It is not known whether Schafer attempted to leap from the train, or whether he was pushed off by the swarm of people that filled the platform.

The young man struck in the cinders upon his head and lay motionless until excited trainmen and passengers rushed back after the train drew up at the north side depot. The train was going at a good rate of speed when Schafer drove from the coach. The young man was cut above the left ear and suffered a severe wound on the head. He was carried to the residence of Mrs. Lawrence Bamberger, near the track, where he remained under the care of Dr. F. C. Suitor until the ambulance conveyed him to the La Crosse hospital.

According to the story of Frank Retzlaff, who was traveling with Schafer, the latter was on the third coach when the accident occurred. The train was crowded and it is the general opinion that he was pushed from the platform. Schafer and Retzlaff had boarded the fast mail at Milwaukee, buying tickets to Blackfield. Retzlaff resides at 372 Reed street, Milwaukee and the injured man at Osage, Minn. They were enroute to this city where they expected to get work and intended going to the western harvest fields from here. Schafer is a barber by trade, but had been employed at various occupations where he had been located from time to time.

It is claimed by the conductor of the train that the men did not pay their fare from Brookfield, but had been bumming their way, hiding here and there with the circus crowds on the train when it reached this city. Schafer is 22 years old. When he fell his head struck in the cinders between the track and he laid unconscious between the tracks upon which the fast mail was running, and the next track adjoining. It is considered fortunate that he was not thrown under the train in his fall.

At the hospital this afternoon it is stated that the man is not badly injured and that he will be able to leave the institution within a few days. The skull is not fractured, the worst injury being the shock and a bad scalp wound.

Circus Man Hurt.
It is stated this afternoon that one of the employes of the Barnum & Bailey circus was run over by a heavy wagon while helping unload a flatcar at the Northwestern depot this morning, and seriously injured. The report was unverified.

It was also reported that a serious accident had called two ambulances to the circus grounds just at noon, but this is denied.

MISS JULIA MARLOWE Heartily Approves of Peruna For the Nerves.

In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., Miss Julia Marlowe, of New York City, writes the following:

"I am glad to write my endorsement of the great remedy, Peruna, as a nerve tonic. I do so most heartily." -- Julia Marlowe.

Nervousness is very common among women. This condition is due to anemic nerve centers. The nerve centers are the reservoirs of nervous vitality. These centers become bloodless for want of proper nutrition. This is especially true in the spring season. Every spring a host of invalids are produced as the direct result of weak nerves.

This can be easily obviated by using Peruna. Peruna strikes at the root of the difficulty by correcting the digestion. Digestion furnishes nutrition for the nerve centers. Properly digested food furnishes these reservoirs of life with vitality which leads to strong, steady nerves, and thus nourishes life. Peruna is in great favor among women, especially those who have vocations that are trying to the nerves. Peruna furnishes the lasting vigor for the nerves that such people need. Thousands of testimonials from women in all parts of the United States are being received every year. Such unsolicited evidence surely proves that Peruna is without an equal as a nerve tonic and a vital invigorator.

Buy a bottle of Peruna to-day. If you do not receive all the benefits from Peruna that you expected, write to Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

There are more than 60,000 acres of land watered by irrigation ditches and peculiarly adapted to the raising of alfalfa, for sale in the Yellowstone valley west of Billings, Mont.

The soil varies from gumbo to sandy loam, and alfalfa does well on all of it. The following figures show what alfalfa will do on irrigated, as compared with common hay on unirrigated land.

One acre in enclosed pasture, 500 pounds.

One acre of range averages 250 pounds. Or again:

One acre of irrigated alfalfa will feed one steer 400 days.

One acre of enclosed pasture will feed one steer 20 days.

One acre of average range will feed one steer 10 days.

Or putting it in the form of sheep, it will show as follows:

160 acres of irrigated alfalfa will maintain 1600 sheep one year.

160 acres of enclosed pasture will maintain 80 sheep one year.

And 160 acres of range will maintain 40 sheep one year.

GLORIOUS FOURTH IS OVER WITH USUAL ACCIDENTS

MANY BURNED BY POW- DER AND WEAPONS IN CELEBRATIONS

List Smaller Than in Former Years, is the Report

Reports from throughout the state indicate that the new anti-cannon cracker law had the effect of minimizing the number of accidents and fatalities from fireworks yesterday.
There were comparatively few accidents.

Ten Boys Burned.

MADISON, Wis., July 5.—Ten young boys, ranging in age from 7 to 15 years, were seriously, two perhaps fatally burned last evening by the explosion of a pound of cannon powder which one of them was carrying home under his arm to celebrate the fourth. The most seriously burned are:

Howard Ennis, aged 12.

Ray Conlin, aged 12.

Willie Shaughnessy, aged 12.

Matt Conlin, aged 10.

James Deneen, aged 13.

Harry Hamacher, aged 15.

Others painfully burned were Leo and Earl O'Keefe, Willie Gafney and Cecil Mead.

People Shot and Burned at Kenosha.

KENOSHA, Wis., July 5.—Three people were injured in Kenosha yesterday as a result of the celebration of the fourth. One man was shot in the leg, another's hand was burned by a giant cracker, and a young lady's face was scorched by powder.

Losers Three Fingers and Thumb.

HAYWARD, Wis., July 5.—Ed.
Walters, a man of 40 years, lost three fingers and a thumb last night by the explosion of a cannon cracker.

Big Parade at Stevens Point.

STEVENS POINT, Wis., July 5.— Stevens Point celebrated on an elaborate scale yesterday, the parade being the finest ever seen here. A fire run and a big display of fireworks was the program in the evening.

Two Hurt at Stevens Point.

As a result of careless handling of revolvers, Frank Fischer, aged 40, and a young son of the Rev. Mr. F. A.
Nimitts had their hands badly wounded.

Boy Dies of Lockjaw.

MERRILL, Wis., July 5.—The Fourth of July produced its usual quota of accidents. The first victim was Leslie Nolan, an 11-year-old boy, who died from lockjaw caused by an injury received several days previous.

He was playing with a toy pistol and part of an exploding cap entered the palm of his hand.

Herman C. Runge, a young business man, had one eye entirely destroyed and the other severely injured by the premature explosion of a firecracker.

C. W. Stannard lost two fingers and a portion of his hand by the explosion of a firecracker.

Both Hands Blown Off.

ESCANABA, Mich., July 5.—One man had both hands blown off and two were injured from explosions of giant fire crackers in Escanaba. Frank McKillican, aged 26 years, a fireman on the Northwestern road, had both hands blown off. Raymond Lafond, aged 28 years, brakeman on the Northwestern, had his left arm and fingers torn by an explosion. T.
Flath, aged 12 years, had his face burned and was bruised by an explosion.
He may lose his eyesight.

McKillican and Lafond were attempting to place a cracker in a large can when the explosion occurred.
McKillican was rendered unconscious and taken to the hospital where his hands were amputated. Flath touched off a giant cracker which failed to explode at once and when he returned to examine the fuse the cracker went off.

Six Hurt at Appleton.

APPLETON, Wis., July 5.—Rain largely interfered with the celebration here yesterday. For the first time in twenty-three years Co. G did not participate in the parade. The affair was under the management of labor unions who voted to ignore the militia.

The first severe accident of the day took place when an explosion of a dynamite cap badly injured William Frier of Kauauna in the leg and foot, and Charles Sorenson of Neenah, aged 8 years, in the foot and hand. Physicians fear lockjaw may set in. Markus Steinlocker was shot in the face with a blank cartridge. He may lose an eye.

An explosion of a dynamite can injured three Hortonville boys. An explosion of all the caps caused the magazine to burst. Edward Schultz,

Russell Pratt had the tip of his finger taken off by placing it in front of a revolver loaded with a blank cartridge.

Big Show at Janesville.

JANESVILLE, Wis., July 5.— Twenty-five thousand people participated in the Fourth of July celebration in Janesville, and merriment was at its height until after midnight.
Nonsuch Bros. burlesque circus parade made a big hit. Special features were the East Indian durbar, put on by Charles Bostwick, who in the role of Lady Curzon, rode on an eight ton road roller chariot, beside Douglas King, who in helmet and suit of immaculate white and many gold medals impersonated the viceroy. A black slave seated on a rear projection of the roller waved a long handled fan of peacock feathers. Odd Fellows, Woodmen and other lodge members to the number of fifty, wearing full regalia and mounted on horseback, formed the escort.

COURSES AT RIPON COLLEGE ARE CHANGED TO TAKE IN NEW LANGUAGES

(Special Tribune Dispatch.)

RIPON, WIS., July 5.—Ripon college has just issued its catalogue giving courses of study and other details for the next year's work. The catalogue gives a marked demonstration of the manner in which the college authorities are keeping in touch with modern feeling, by announcing that a change in the courses has been made, by which those persons who are not devoted to the so-called dead languages, Latin and Greek, may secure a bachelor of arts degree by work in other languages. While Ripon has the best facilities for teaching Latin and Greek of any college or university in the north central states, the University of Michigan alone being excepted, and while it will expend a large sum in improving those departments, the college authorities have decided to make a place for those students who are ranged against the dead languages in the contest now being waged between educators of two factions. The manner in which this question of languages has come to the front in educational circles is shown by the fact that at Cambridge University, England, recently, a vote was called for from all alumni and undergraduates, as to the advisability of retaining Greek as a compulsory study.
The advocates of Greek won in this case, but in America, the home of the business men, there is a considerable feeling that colleges of high rank ought to offer the arts degrees without requiring work in the dead languages as an essential. Ripon college has solved the puzzle of how to accommodate the views of both of these educational factions by improving the Latin and Greek departments, the former by sending Prof. E. W. Clark abroad to delve for a year in the ruins of ancient Rome, to secure relics and samples of Roman art and the implements of their daily life, and at the same time changing the entrance requirements of the college by installing a system providing for the entrance to work for the bachelor of arts degree with two units of any language, instead of the two units of Latin formerly required. This will make possible a substitution of French or German for the Latin. This will meet the arguments of the pro-classical and the anti-classical alike.

The new arrangement of the group system of which this is a development has proved eminently satisfactory after two years of trial. It provides a general course suited to American culture and the typical American college, and gives unity to a course. After the first two years of general work, the student elects a major subject in which to specialize, and thereafter his work is under the direction of the head of that department. His graduation thesis must be on a subject related to this major subject.

FRIDAY IS LA CROSSE DAY AT VIR- OQUA

Friday, July 7th, will be La Crosse day at Viroqua street fair and carnival being held there this week. Secretary Coffland of the carnival committee yesterday formally extended an invitation to the La Crosse board of trade and Progressive association to participate in the celebration, and also a general invitation to citizens to be present. A special train will probably be arranged to leave here about nine in the morning and a large crowd is expected to attend if the weather is favorable. Dana's Third regiment band will be secured for the occasion.

SURVEY OF SPARTA AND LA CROSSE DISTRICT

Congressman Esch has received word from Robert Muldrow, chief topographer of the northern district of the United States government survey, that the work of making a geological survey of the Sparta quadrangle, comprising the eastern portion of La Crosse county and the western portion of Monroe, will be started early in September.

This portion of Wisconsin has never been surveyed by the government coast and geological survey, which comprises a complete record of the character of the rocks and soil, different formations of the same, the water supply, what minerals if any are evident on the surface, the general character and elevations of all mounds and other matter of general information regarding the country.

WISCONSIN POSTOFFICE CLERKS IN SESSION HERE

Charles Willey of This City Chosen National Delegate--Next Meet- ing at Eau Claire

J. H. Miller of this city was chosen chairman of the finance committee and Charles Willey delegate to the national convention, at the annual convention of Wisconsin postoffice clerks held in the federal building here yesterday. The next convention will be held July 4, 1906, in Eau Claire.

The convention was called to order at 10 o'clock yesterday morning by President L. Lachman of Milwaukee with about 25 delegates present.
Postmaster Tschanner welcomed the convention to La Crosse on behalf of the citizens and postoffice clerks. National Secretary R. C. Loeffler responded. This was followed by the business session at which officers were elected and important matters discussed.

The state delegate to the national convention biennially instead of annually resolution of thank to local branch No. 988, the entertainment committee and the citizens of La Crosse was passed.

At noon the delegates were escorted to the Stoddard, where they were banqueted, and this was followed by a launch ride on the Mississippi in the afternoon. The delegates returned to their homes on the night trains.

The following officers were elected: President—Edward C. Zender, Manitowish.

First Vice President—J. M. Copp, Madison.

Second Vice President—F. L. Cooper, Eau Claire.

Secretary and Treasurer—Oscar Dappler, Baraboo.

Sergeant-at-arms—L. B. Wood, Superior.

Chairman Finance Committee—J.
H. Miller, La Crosse.

Chairman Organization Committee
—Louis Lachman, Milwaukee.

State Delegate to National Convention at Cedar Rapids—Charles W.

vic Federation, and attorneys and saloon men, were in a heated discussion for an hour last evening for and against granting Matt Lui a saloon license on Erie street, opposite St. Joseph's and St. John's churches and school houses. Charges were made that liquor was sold to minors that there were disturbances tending to demoralize the church members and school children. The vote was a tie, 10 for and 10 against. Mayor Neison voted "no," and Lui will not receive a license. The mayor said he voted "no" because the saloon was only thirty-six feet from one of the churches.

ALONZO BURT SETS PACE FOR CORPORA- TIONS

Wisconsin Telephone Co. Glad to Pay Its Share of Taxes

The attitude of President Alonzo Burt of the Wisconsin Telephone company, when he appeared at Madison recently before the joint committee on assessment and collection of taxes, was rather unusual for the head of a large corporation.

Mr. Burt, in his argument before the committee, not only said that his company wanted to pay its fair share of taxes, but he also made a clear and fair statement of existing conditions for the purpose of helping the committee perfect a bill for taxing telephone companies on the advalorem basis. He said that a change from the license to the advalorem system would cost his company considerable money in preparing the reports required under the advalorem bill; "but," said he, "we appreciate that the advalorem method is now applied to many other forms of property in the state and we shall not oppose a plan to tax our property on that basis, although the proposed bill will materially increase the amount of taxes paid by the company."

The apathy—sometimes antipathy—of great corporations toward their obligations to the state, has created in the minds of many persons a feeling of prejudice against public service corporations in general. The stand taken by Mr. Burt shows a broad minded view of things and will receive the hearty commendation of the public. His loyalty to the commonwealth, as well as his interest in the welfare of the stockholders and patrons of the Wisconsin Telephone company will not only win public favor for the company which he represents, but will be a guarantee of its greater success and development.

Mr. Burt's attitude showed him to be a capable president, a loyal citizen and a far sighted administrator, free from that narrow-minded and prejudiced spirit which sometimes characterizes one absorbed in the affairs of a great corporation. He has shown himself to be a safe man at the helm, whose loyalty to the state is proof of sincere interest in the highest permanent welfare of the company, as he is already winning friends and an increased measure of public confidence in himself and the company he represents by the stand taken before the committee.

The public needs to have its confidence increased in the fair intentions of the corporation which it patronizes and which it expects to support either tomorrow or

THE DISAPPROVAL OF MR. G.

Of course it isn't worth while, but just to be doing something to entertain the already well-informed public we rise to suggest that Mr. Gelatt's joke about "smoking out the man behind the mud" is one of the funniest things that Wiley (generator) gentleman has done since the Central Electric smokestack deal was adjusted amid furious stories of a bleeding state. The man in front of the mud gets funnier as he gets sorer.

But seriously, the Organ's statement that we have ever by word or deed disapproved of Mayor Torraine, is a lie. That we have adversely criticized Mr. Mahoney, Joe Sieger and Mr. Pettingill is true; we have not pestered them, but where there was a difference of opinion and we thought they were wrong, we have said so. We have not "slung mud" at anyone except the very mad man who is so well bespattered with Wiley-generator Common-stock Smoke-stack mud that no further identification is necessary.

And now there is that roar about ripping up the brick pavement; that was done by The Chronicle for Mr. Cargill, and saved him $70,000. It will be done again by The Chronicle and the Leader-Press simply because they want to hinder the competitor of their Great Mogul, the Light Trust. "Both these companies," says Mr. Gelatt. Did ever the ostrich learn that he couldn't hide by putting his bill in the sand?

And again, there is a cry of rage at Attorney Fred Hartwell because he said in his paper, "in spite of the board of trade, etc.," and now he is damned and subject to the Furies of HIS wrath; and even good, kind, lovable Tom Morris is threatened for having such a partner, for the war-cry said distinctly and significantly that Mr. Hartwell is the law partner "of Senator Thomas Morris," which of course means that if Fred isn't very careful Tom will just catch the very devil. When a man representing this great brewery city arises in his seat to say that he doesn't care whether the saloons like his course or not, that man is certain to be just scared to death by a savage look from the maddest man who ever received a gift of Common Stock.

Go to the circus.

A man can never judge his own guilt, if he is guilty.

Senator Mitchell of Oregon proclaimed his innocence too, but the investigation proved him guilty.

It is said that Bill Cargill has said that "We are going to get that pennant if we have to hire all the players in the Southern League," which if said meant if Mr. Cargill had to hire them. This sounds like Bill Cargill, and if he said it, we will get that pennant; Bill makes a specialty of delivering the goods, and his enthusiastic attitude toward the team—hasn't lost any friends. We hope that he said it, for everybody wants that pennant.

Incidentally it is true it was not a smart trick, and if it isn't true it is very bad treatment of Mr. Heath. That Mr. Cargill dislikes Mr. Heath is true, but we doubt that he would knowingly and maliciously permit his paper to be responsible for the very silly story of an alleged coarse piece of work; some reporter saw a joke, that's all. It would be like Mr. Heath to throw an offending visitors out of his office, but the story of the trick sounds like a too petty transaction for Mr. Heath.

MAYOR OF NEW YORK SAYS WE ARE TOO RESTLESS

McCLELLAN TALKS TO EDUCATORS AT ASBURY PARK

Too Much Regard for "Doing Things" Regardless of Quality

Asbury Park, N. J., July 5. — A feature of the gathering of the National Educational association was the address of Mayor George B. McClellan, of New York, on "The Standards of Local Administration." He said in part: "I take it that the subject which has been assigned to me means educational administration, and therefore education itself. It may be that

GEORGE B. McCLELLAN.

I am old-fashioned; it may be that my theories are obsolete; but I assure you that I am sincere in saying that I believe that schools exist for man, and not man for schools. There is no more misused, misapplied and misunderstood word in the English language than education. To teach is one thing, to educate is another. As the requirements of modern conditions change so the requirements need to meet modern conditions change.

Fundamentals All Should Know.

"The 'three R's' of yesterday may not necessarily be the 'three R's' of today. But there are certain fundamental subjects that every one must know, and know well, if success in after life is to be hoped for. You have a great opportunity here in this convention—you who make education your life work—to agree upon what these fundamentals should be, and then, by educating public sentiment, to cause their adoption as the three R's throughout the United States.

Chief End Is Good Citizenship.

"The chief purpose, for that matter the only purpose, of public education — for it is with public education only that we are concerned today — is to make good citizens of the republic. We have thrown our doors wide open to the people of the whole world. Every immigrant who accepts our invitation and comes to us, imposes upon us an additional duty which we cannot shirk. The problem is serious, but by no means insoluble. Its solution depends entirely upon ourselves.

WHAT THE COUNTRY NEEDS BADLY

Mayor Seems To Be Hitting at the Man Who "Does Things."

"The country needs men of thought and men of learning and needs them badly. The man who thinks may be a greater patriot than the man who does. It has been said that no amount of sweetness and light will avail unless accompanied by action, which is the same as saying that the brain would be useless without the power of expression. We have defied action at the expense of thought. The good old motto 'Act in haste, repent at leisure' no longer stands at the top of our copy books. We have so persistently preached the doctrine of action that we are almost convinced that any action is better than none.

"We suffer from the spirit of unrest, which frequently prompts us to ill-considered, immature and thoughtless action, often merely for the sake of doing something. We are inclined to applaud the man who does, not so much because he accomplishes anything useful as because he accomplishes something, be it good, bad or indifferent. This spirit of unrest permeates our whole national life, political, social, educational. Contentment bids fair to be banished from our existence.

"He who is content is sneered at as being without ambition, and yet ambition and hysteresis are very different things. Contentment and happiness are synonymous, but we prefer to sacrifice both in a struggle for the unobtainable. Were our ambitions laudable our state of mind would be most commendable, but unfortunately we scarcely know what we are striving for, and we forget that deeds

Girl Acquitted of Murder of Man Who Jilted her

Wheaton, Ill., July 5.—Antoinette Seldensticker, a 14-year-old girl who has been on trial here for the murder of Herman Shipp, has been acquitted. As the clerk pronounced the words "not guilty" the girl threw her arms about her attorney's neck and burst into tears. The verdict, which is a popular one, was reached after only thirty minutes' deliberation.

The crime for which the girl was on trial was committed last May. She and Shipp had been sweethearts, but she discovered that he was paying attentions to other girls and shot and killed him. At the same time she made a desperate effort to commit suicide, first by shooting, and when that failed, by throwing herself in front of a moving train.

GUARDSMAN ADMONISHES HIS COLONEL

Springfield, Ill., July 5.—It is a rare occurrence for a private to admonish a colonel, but this is what happened at Camp Lincoln when a private guard notified Colonel Stuart, commanding the Second regiment, that he had forgotten to salute the colors. Colonel Stuart had stepped out of his quarters to speak to a friend.

The colors are directly in front of his tent, and when the colonel went back into his tent the color guard rushed up to him with his gun in his hands, and with the dignity of a superior officer said: "Colonel, you did not salute the colors." The colonel saluted and explained that he had failed to notice that he had gone beyond the color line. When he went into his tent the colonel remarked that the soldier was right and was possessed of the right quality.

DEPOSITORS AT TOPEKA WILL NOT LOSE

Topeka, Kan., July 5.—C. J. Devlin authorizes the following statement: "No depositor in the First National bank will lose a dollar. I will give up everything I have in the world, if necessary, to make the bank pay dollar for dollar." It is added that Devlin expects to be able to take active charge of his business within a short time. His physician stated that Devlin will be able to go to his office within a week.

It is stated on reliable authority that the prime cause of Devlin's financial troubles is the Toledo and Spring Valley railroad, which he commenced to build in Illinois lately. The road took more money than Devlin figured on, and he became hard pressed for funds.

Sweden Prepares for War

Stockholm, July 5.—The Associated Press is in a position to state that an order for the mobilization of the Swedish army has been issued and that a proclamation to this effect will probably be issued within a week.

The mobilization is intended as a means of giving added force to any proposal for settlement which the special committee appointed by the riksdag may make to the Norwegian storting.

to accept the Norwegian throne. In speaking of the attitude of Norway the king displayed deep emotion, and expressed his heartfelt sorrow at Norway's treatment of him after thirty-two years of unceasing labor for his happiness and prosperity. His majesty said he wished to convey through the Associated Press his gratitude for hundreds of expressions of sympathy received from the United States.

Had a Right to Veto the Bill.

In the course of the conversation King Oscar reiterated his official utterances regarding his position on the consular bill passed by the storting, and the events which followed his veto of it and said: "When the king of Norway considers that the welfare of the country demands that he shall veto a bill passed by the storting his right to do so is unconditionally shown in Norway's constitution, and he would be false to his oath if he did not exercise this right in accordance with his conscience.

STATES THE LAW IN THE CASE

Explains the Powers of the Storting and of the King.

The constitution gives the storting the power to pass a measure over my veto, prescribing, however, that this can only be done by the bill being passed by three consecutively elected storthings. The consular bill was only passed by one storting. As king of Norway it was of the utmost necessity that I should always keep before my eyes the first article of the Norwegian constitution, which reads: 'The kingdom of Norway is a free, independent, indivisible and inalienable country, united to Sweden under one king.' Therefore it was imperative before approving a bill separating the consular systems of Sweden and Norway that I should consider the welfare and interests of both countries, and I had a perfect right as king of Norway to refuse my sanction.

"The refusal of the Norwegian cabinet to countersign my veto was inexcusable as the constitution prescribes that the king may decide according to his judgment and that all his orders must be countersigned by the cabinet. Thus the Norwegian constitution, my own conscience and my consideration of the welfare of both kingdoms were the guide to my action in vetoing the consular bill."

MILWAUKEE'S MYSTERIOUS MAN HAS STRANGE HEALING POWER

(Special Tribune Dispatch.) MILWAUKEE, July 5.—The people of this city are greatly excited over a number of remarkable cures which have been effected by a wealthy philanthropist, who is known as the Great Cooper.

The Plankinton Hotel, where he has been stopping, is besieged with crowds of men and women eager to be cured of their ills.

Cooper is a quiet, gentlemanly person, with the appearance of a student, rather than the business man. He is apparently about thirty-one or two years of age. He first came into public notice by his philanthropic work among the poor. The large fortune he possesses has made it possible for him to distribute many wagon loads of food and clothing among those in indigent circumstances since his arrival in Milwaukee.

The first that was known of Cooper's power over disease was when Adolph Loeser, living on Lee street in this city, declared that Cooper, the philanthropist, was the same person who saved his son's life in Kentucky two years ago, after the physicians had given him up to die. Mr. Loeser stated that the doctors said his son was suffering from consumption and stomach trouble. He was very weak, had no appetite and could not digest what little he did eat. He was so low that he was unable to stand on his feet for any length of time, and the least exertion tired him. He had been sick for about five years when Mr. Cooper heard of the case and called to see the boy. Four doses of a peculiar medicine left by Mr. Cooper brought an immense parasite from the boy's system, measuring sixty feet in length. The boy began to improve immediately, and is today in perfect health.

A few days after this, Mrs. Paulo Marks, living at No. 469 Virginia street, reported that her husband, who had been paralyzed for four months, had regained the use of his limbs after only a few days' treatment by Cooper.

This was followed by the remarkable cure of John Leary, a well known citizen, residing at No. 260 Fifth street. Mr. Leary has suffered from a stroke of paralysis last January and had been unable to move his limbs or even speak. He had been under the constant care of two physicians, but had received no benefit from their treatment. In one week after he began Cooper's treatment, he could use his limbs and had regained his speech. These reports flew through the city like wild-fire, and Cooper was besieged by people suffering from all manner of ailments.

He charges no fee for consultation, but advises those who wish to consult him, to write a plain statement of their condition, describing their symptoms, and send this statement to him by mail, and he will tell them what remedies to use and how to use them.

That he is doing a great amount of good among the sick and needy of this city is an assured fact.

BOY PEEPS INTO MUZZLE OF GUN AND PULLS TRIGGER

Bullet Grazes Head and Life is Saved
--New Law Reduces Number of Accidents

The use of the cannon cracker and the dangerous big dynamite explosives being prohibited was the cause of fewer accidents than usual on Fourth of July in La Crosse county, and doctors had little to do yesterday.

Bernie Olson, West Salem, didn't know a revolver was loaded, peeped into the muzzle and pulled the trigger, with the result that a bullet flattened out on his forehead just above the eye. The small calibre of the gun and a weak cartridge is all that saved his life.

A penny firecracker exploded in the hands of John Doerr, a small boy residing at 1017 Berlin street, and his face was filled with flying bits of powder. One eye was badly injured although it is believed the sight can be saved.

George Ekert, a small boy, stood on a cannon cracker with the result that the heel was torn from the foot and the member otherwise badly lacerated.

A cannon cracker which Bennie Kramer of 216 Milwaukee street was holding in his hand went off prematurely and badly lacerated his fingers.

Walter Schaldach of 809 South Eighth street, who was injured Saturday night by the premature explosion of a powerful cracker, was much better today and it was stated that his eyesight would be saved.

outfit of tables and dishes, and the serving stands. Forty-five minutes after the first wagon arrived, the mess tent was erected, the tables were lined with dishes, a wholesome breakfast was ready and the first shift of workers had taken their places ready to be served a meal.

Smaller tents were erected with astonishing speed. The hospital tent, press headquarters, stables for work horses, side show tents, dressing rooms, refreshment stands, a canvas covered blacksmith and carpenter shop and the huge menagerie tent were in place by 3 o'clock. Then came the master feat of all—erecting the great show tent, 600 feet long and 100 feet high, which was accomplished in a little over an hour.

In the menagerie tent a trained elephant moved the big animal cages about in response to the commands of his trainer. A cage weighing four tons was moved across the tent as though it were a baby carriage.

A few feet away, chained to stakes, was placed the herd of twenty-four trained elephants. Great crowds of people surrounded them all afternoon, feeding them peanuts, and daintily touching the sensitive tips of their trunks. Among the herd was "Coco," a young pachyderm whose wicked eyes affirm his dark record. Twice he instigated stampedes in the herd. Not far away is "Gyp," whose trunk is paralyzed above the tip, and who feeds herself by swinging her head until the trunk is thrown into the waiting mouth, bearing a wisp of hay or some other dainty.

Those tired, weak and inflamed eyes can be cured entirely with a pair of my perfectly fitted glasses.—W. T. IRVINE, EXPERT OPTICIAN, 429 Main Street.

HOW CONGDON AND AND HIS BRIDE FOOLED CROWD

WINONA PAPER GETS
"WISE" TO GAME

Word has been received here of the wedding of Dow G. Congdon, city editor of The Chronicle, and Miss Violet M. Ives, of Minneapolis, which occurred Monday at the home of the bride's sister in Minneapolis. Newspapersmen and numerous other friends in La Crosse are ready to extend congratulations upon the arrival of the young couple, who for a time will make their home at the Wilson house on Sixth and Cass streets.

The Winona Independent thus graphically describes the affair: "Winona is noted for having a pretty wise bunch of fellows and they generally know about as much about the movements of each other as it is possible for them to know, but it seems that Dow G. Congdon, city editor of the Morning Chronicle has the rest of the boys all defeated in a little trick which he turned yesterday."

"Dan Cupid is responsible for it all. Dow proved an easy mark for little Dan, and when Dan said 'marry the girl,' Dow said I guess I will."

"Then, without consulting any of the other boys he stole away to Minneapolis Sunday and yesterday morning was wedded to Miss Violet M. Ives, a charming Flour City belle. The marriage was a quiet little affair and took place at the house of the bride's sister, Mrs. Graffeld Meyer, 3612 Nicollet avenue."

"Mr. and Mrs. Congdon, not wishing to spend their honeymoon in a town where there was no celebration today decided to come to a good town—Winona—and were registered at the Winona last night and will spend the day here."

FROM THE EDITOR.

He Forgot That He Had a Stomach.

Talking of food, there is probably no professional man subjected to a greater, more wearing mental strain than the responsible editor of a modern newspaper.

To keep his mental faculties constantly in good working order, the editor must keep his physical powers up to the highest rate of efficiency. Nothing will so quickly upset the whole system as badly selected food and a disordered stomach. It therefore follows that he should have right food, which can be readily assimilated and which furnishes true brain nourishment.

"My personal experience in the use of Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Coffee," writes a Philadelphia editor, "so exactly agrees with your advertised claim as to their merits that any further exposition in that direction would seem to be superfluous. They have benefited me so much, however, during the five years that I have used them, that I do not feel justified in withholding my testimony."

"General 'high living' with all that the expression implies as to a generous table, brought about indigestion, in my case, with restlessness at night, and lassitude in the morning, accompanied by various pains and distressing sensations during working hours. The doctor diagnosed the condition as 'catarrh of the stomach,' and prescribed various medicines, which did me no good. I finally threw physics to the dogs, gave up tea and coffee and heavy meat dishes, and adopted Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Coffee as the chief articles of my diet."

"I can conscientiously say, and I wish to say it with all the emphasis possible to the English language, that they have benefited me as medicines never did, and more than any other food that ever came on my table. My experience is that the Grape-Nuts food has steadied and strengthened both brain and nerves to a most positive degree. How it does it, I cannot say, but I know that after breakfasting on Grape-Nuts food one actually forgets he has a stomach, let alone 'stomach trouble.' It is, in my opinion, the most beneficial as well as the most economical food on the market, and has absolutely no rival." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

BIRD RE-ELECTED, NO TO REFERENCE CHARGES

INVESTIGATION TO BE HELD LATER

John P. Bird was re-elected superintendent of the La Crosse school by a unanimous vote at the meeting of the board of education Monday night. The charges against Mr. Bird of being incompetent to preside over the schools of the city made a couple of months ago, were not considered in the re-election, as the committee has not yet begun the investigation owing to one of its members, Alderman Bacheller, being out of the city.

While Mr. Bird announces that his re-election is a vindication of himself, members of the investigating committee assert that this conclusion is by no means true, as the investigation has not even been held, and exoneration will not be considered until after the investigation. The board of education, and not the council committee is responsible for the re-election of the superintendent. It is claimed by parties acquainted with the situation that the board of education announced six months ago, before any charges were made and when the first dissenting comment was heard, that they would re-elect Bird regardless of the charges, hence it is taken that were the re-election to be considered an exoneration, the exoneration was assured before the charges were filed, and without consideration of them.

OF POTEMKINE TO STROY ALL RUSS WARSHIPS

Such is Text of Note Filed With the Powers

Odessa, July 5.—An attempt to resist the mutiny on the battleship Georgi Pobedonostz has been discovered. It was frustrated by loyal sailors, who delivered six of the leaders to the authorities. The torpedo boats which remained here have gone to sea.
St. Petersburg, July 5.—It is stated that the transport Vecha, the crew of which joined the mutineers in the harbor of Odessa, has surrendered in Russian waters.

London, July 5.—A dispatch to The Evening Standard from Odessa says the Kiaz Potemkine has been sighted twenty-five miles off that port.
Odessa, July 5.—Comparative order has been restored here and work is being resumed in the harbor.

Odessa, July 5.—It is reported persistently in army and navy circles that the Kiaz Potemkine is being stalked and pursued by several torpedo boats, which intend to sink her. The crews of these boats consist of officers who volunteered, and stokers; so there is no danger of their refusal to obey orders and destroy the renegade ship.

The Kiaz Potemkine's hours are declared to be numbered. Regret is expressed at the destruction of such a splendid and powerful battleship and at the loss of life, but this is thought to be preferable to the continued dishonor of her presence in the Black sea commanded by mutineers.

They Are Enlisted for the War.
Bucharest, Roumania, July 5.—Before the Kiaz Potemkine sailed for Kustenji a delegation from the crew handed the prefect a proclamation addressed to the representatives of the powers in Roumania, formally declaring war on all Russian vessels which refuse to join the mutineers. The proclamation says the Kiaz Potemkine will respect neutral territory and foreign shipping. The delegation requested that the proclamation be forwarded to the powers.

Torpedo Boat Looking for the Potemkine.
Bucharest, Roumania, July 5.—The Russian torpedo boat destroyer Smelly appeared off Kustenji and signalled that she was seeking the Kiaz Potemkine. It is stated that the Kiaz Potemkine has attacked an Italian vessel carrying coal. There is much uneasiness among Russian vessels at Roumanian ports.

GETS HER FOOD BY FORCE
Mutiny Ship Requisitioned Cattle from Germans—Other Mutinies Defeated.

Berlin, July 5.—A dispatch to The Lokal Anzeiger from Odessa says the Kiaz Potemkine threatened to attack a village of German colonists on the coast near Odessa, and requisitioned and took on board some cattle.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—The minister of marine has received the following telegram from Admiral Kruger:
"The crew of the transport Prout, when leaving Budrovo bay, mutinied, arresting the captain and other officers. Second Lieutenant Nestertzeff and Boatswain Kozlitzine were killed.
The Prout has arrived at Sebastopol, and the crew now is repentant. The officers have been released, the crew begging them to resume their posts.
The Prout has been ordered to anchor at Kamesheval bay and an inquiry into the affair has been opened."

Paris, July 5.—A dispatch to The Temps from Constantinople says that the Russian steamer Emperor Nicolas II, which had been ordered to proceed to Alexandria in place of Odessa, owing to the troubles at the latter place, was unable to leave Constantinople on account of a mutiny of the crew of the Emperor Nicolas II, which insisted on going to Odessa, where the men's families live.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—The admiralty says it is without information as to the whereabouts of the Kiaz Po-temkine, but the officials are inclined to believe that if the mutineers have supplies enough they will not go to a Bulgarian or Turkish port, but will head for Poti or Batoum, where the revolutionists might give them succor, and where the mutineers could escape to the mountains of the Caucasus.

BRITAIN WILLING TO TRUST RUSS

London, July 5.—In the house of commons Earl Percy, the foreign under secretary, replying to a suggestion that friendly representations should be made to Russia proposing a temporary suspension of the treaty excluding foreign warships from the Black sea, so that British vessels might safeguard the life and property of British subjects at Odessa, said the present circumstances at Odessa did not afford sufficient grounds from such a departure from treaty rules governing the Black sea.

There was nothing to show, he said, that the Russian government had not adequate means for protecting British subjects. In common with the rest of the population, nor that the arrival of British warships would improve the situation.

ALFALFA BY IRRIGATION YELLOWSTONE VALLEY, MONTANA.

There are more than 60,000 acres of land watered by irrigation ditches and peculiarly adapted to the raising of alfalfa, for sale in the Yellowstone valley west of Billings, Mont.
The soil varies from gumbo to sandy loam, and alfalfa does well on all of it. The following figures show what alfalfa will do on irrigated, as compared with common hay on un-irrigated, land.

One acre sown to alfalfa and irrigated, will produce 10,000 pounds of hay.
One acre in enclosed pasture, 500 pounds.
One acre of range averages 250 pounds. Or again:
One acre of irrigated alfalfa will feed one steer 400 days.
One acre of enclosed pasture will feed one steer 20 days.

One acre of average range will feed one steer 10 days.
Or putting it in the form of sheep, it will show as follows: 160 acres of irrigated alfalfa will maintain 1600 sheep one year.
160 acres of enclosed pasture will maintain 80 sheep one year.
And 160 acres of range will maintain 40 sheep one year.
